

Key Humanities Questions

What is it like to be invaded and which countries have been invaded recently?

Who were the Romans and would they have enjoyed coming to Britain?

Would you prefer to be a gladiator or a premiership footballer?

What did the Romans do for us?

Key Science questions

Why would it not be sensible to eat a burger every day?

What is the digestive system and why is it so important?

How can you make a simple model using junk material to show how the digestive system works?

Why is it important to brush your teeth each day?

What kind of effect would these have on your teeth everyday if you did not brush them?

As Historians/Geographers can we...?

Place periods of history on a timeline.

Explain how people, who lived in the past, cooked and travelled differently and used different weapons from us.

Recognise how people of different statuses lived.

As Scientists can we...?

Identify and name the basic parts of the human digestive system.

Identify the names and simple function of different types of human teeth.

Explain what a simple food chain shows.

Using technology can we...?

What is animation?

What were early animation techniques like and when were they seen?

How can we make our own animations?

As Musicians can we...?

Listen with attention to detail and recall sounds.

Begin to use and understand staff and other musical notations.

Improvise and compose.

As Writers can we...?

-organise paragraphs around a theme.

Vary sentence structure using different openers.

Use commas after fronted adverbials (e.g. Later that day, I heard bad news, rather than I heard bad news later that day).

We will be learning how to write a diary entry along with looking at writing different Narrative pieces.

As Readers can we...?

- Use appropriate expression when reading speech for characters within a story.

Understand how the author wants to the reader to respond?

Use dictionaries to check the meaning of words they have read.

As Designers can we...?

Design, and build a Roman fort and describe the features.

Design and create a circus themed prop as part of our literacy topic.

Design and create a Roman soldier's uniform and a Roman weapon.

As mathematicians can we...?

Use our knowledge of multiplication and division facts to solve problems.

Divide a 2 digit number by a one digit number using an efficient written method.

Read Roman numerals to 100.

Calculating the area and of a shape using squares and multiplication

To develop our physical ability can we ...?

Gymnastics

Develop throwing, passing and scoring skills in touch rugby.

Practise our running, jumping and throwing skills by trying some of the activities used by Romans in the past.

To develop our religious and cultural understanding can we...?

Describe different features of religions and world views.

Explain and reflect on celebrations and rituals at Christmas time; worldwide.