MESSAGE FROM MRS LAWRENCE

Dear Parents and Carers,

Please find information below regarding free support which is available to our families. The first is a supportive network to address parental conflict and how this impacts on our children. Content includes:

- What is parental conflict and its negative impact on children's outcomes
- How to recognise conflict triggers in everyday life and how to keep arguments healthy
- Overview of the free support and tools available in Bromley

Please scan the QR code for more information and how to book.

Supporting adults with anxiety, low mood or stress

Bromley NHS Talking Therapies service (formerly Talk together Bromley) is available to anyone 18 years and older who lives in Bromley or is registered with a Bromley GP. The team consists of psychotherapists, counsellors, psychological wellbeing practitioners and employment advisors. They offer a range of talking therapy treatments and online therapy for adults with common mental health problems. Appointments, sessions and groups are available between the hours of 9am and 5pm, Monday to Friday.

If you would like more information please contact:

- Telephone: 0300 003 3000
- E-mail: bromh.talkingtherapies@nhs.net
- Website: <https://www.bromleytalkingtherapies.nhs.uk/>

Please speak to either myself or Mrs Sargeant for support in accessing these services.

Have a wonderful weekend,

Mrs Lawrence

Netball

The Biggin Hill Netball club received their new kit yesterday. How smart do they look! We had an amazing training session as always. Congratulations to Daniella for getting star of the week for her amazing passing into the circle and learning new positions. Also thanks to Poppy LS, even though she has broken her wrist she has taken on the role of supporter and umpire like a pro. The first match for the team will be coming soon - we will keep you posted!
